

The Course Experience

The Call to Work Course is a workshop-based experience teaching participants to attune to God's presence and guidance in their hour-by-hour of work and life.

“They say when you know better, you do better, but what happens when you don't know what to do? I read my bible and took notes every Sunday. I knew I wanted to be more like Christ, but had absolutely no clue on how to change my ways, my reflexes, my habits. The Call to Work was the answer to my prayers. Armed with the different tools and frameworks to process situations, relationships, and problems both at work and in my personal life, I began to feel a shift in my thinking and most importantly my heart...With repetition, TC2W tools have become much more automatic, more of a way of being than a conscious exercise. I'm showing up differently and others have begun to take notice. My relationships have really deepened and I feel I am now more equipped to live out Christ's instructions to Love.”

ABOUT THE COURSE

THE CALL TO WORK

- ▶ The Course helps people with the things that keep them up at night: a difficult decision, a bad boss, an ethical dilemma, issues juggling work with other priorities, etc.
- ▶ The Course offers frameworks, tools and an effective forum for people to practice putting Scriptural wisdom into action, improving their response to specific situations.
- ▶ The Course facilitates habit and eventually character transformation towards Christlikeness. This growth brings greater fullness of life, fostering fruit of the Spirit and enhanced mental, emotional, and relational capabilities.

Participant & Leader

“The Kingdom Orientation Toolkit helps us take the Word into our every situation. It is the practical application of my daily devotionals, providing structured steps to help me focus on including the Lord in my choices in everyday life. The Call to Work teaches us to listen and really hear. It’s a way of life for me now.”

REV. WILL MESSENGER
Reservoir Church

“The Call to Work is above all else, practical. People at our church won’t come to something just to learn ideas. It has to make a difference in their lives immediately. TC2W does. We were hoping to get ten participants, and ended up getting over 50. People need help with their work from a spiritual and theological perspective, and they got it with TC2W. The tools genuinely helped our members with their work struggles—and they are struggling at work, whether we know it or not. In TC2W they experienced God’s guidance for their everyday, real life work situations while also making new friends in the congregation.”
